

What is CEASecure™?

Your program advisors at CEA Study Abroad recommend that you make our CEASecure™ plan a key part of your study abroad program planning. Under this special refund plan, you may withdraw from your CEA program for any covered reason up to one calendar week before your program's start date. CEASecure™ provides refunds for these covered reasons:

- Medical – If a student or an immediate family member of the student becomes seriously ill, is seriously injured in an accident or dies.
- Terrorist Attack – If the U.S. Department of State determines that there has been a terrorist attack against U.S. interests within the host country of a student's program site, and issues an official Travel Warning that Americans should not travel to that city.
- Job Loss – If a parent or legal guardian of a student is laid off from work or loses his/her job as a result of a general staff reduction or position elimination.
- Total Destruction of a Student's Primary Residence – If the student's primary place of residence is destroyed by a natural disaster, fire or explosion.

Please go to www.ceastudyabroad.com/docs/CEA_Policies.pdf for specific pre-program start coverage information.

What is refundable prior to departure?

A refund includes all program fees that you have paid to CEA, less the $95 application fee, non-refundable program confirmation fee, any late fee and the cost of the CEASecure™ plan.

Am I eligible for any kind of refund after my program starts?

Yes, CEASecure™ covers trip interruption refunds after your program has started under the following conditions:

- Medical – If a student or an immediate family member of the student becomes seriously ill, is seriously injured in an accident or dies.
- Terrorist Attack – If the U.S. Department of State states that there has been a terrorist attack against U.S. interests within the host country of a student's program site, and issues an official Travel Warning that Americans should not travel to that city.
